SCIENTIFIC AND PRACTICAL CONFERENCE

«The Current State of Ukrainian Orthodoxy: Challenges, Problems, and Expectations»

*The event will be held on March 29, 2024
(Dragomanov Ukrainian State University, Kyiv, Oleksandra Konyskoho St, 8/14, 11:00 a.m.)*

The main areas of work of the Conference:

1. Inter-Orthodox processes in Ukraine during the war with Russia
2. International context of inter-Orthodox processes in Ukraine
3. Inter-Orthodox communication: similarities and differences
4. Society, state and church - the current stage of relations
5. Training and activities of chaplains.

The event is dedicated to highlighting the relevant issues of the current state of Orthodoxy in Ukraine, identifying potential ways to promote inter-Orthodox interaction and communication, discussing the international and regional context of Orthodox processes, and the role of society and the state in the development of inter-Orthodox interaction.

We invite researchers, representatives of religious organizations, experts, representatives of public organizations, government agencies, and anyone interested in resolving these issues to join the conference.
